AN ASPIRATION ABOUT TO BE RE-ALIZED.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

On the 28th day of November, 1870, Governor Scott sent into the General Assembly a message, in which the following extract appears: "If I could close my term, knowing that my efforts had been successful in making all men feel once more that they have a common interest in the reputation and prosperity of the State, I should rest content with myself and thankful to the God of Peace, who used me as

Yes, we think, after reading Cardozo's, Parker's and his own letters, that he has been an instrument in making people feel that it is about time that their common interest was looked after, and that, too, in a way that the system, thereby enabling it to resist and would not bring much contentment to his weary soul, and a little different from his God of Peace intended. Our idea of prosperity to the State would be to make him and the rest returne large part of the common interest they took from the people he desires to unite, BAZAAR. and that would give us a start towards that kind of prosperity that South Carolina needs; and the best way to do it is to help THE News' idea of the last few days-force the Ring into the Courts, Scott, Parker, Cardozo, and the innocent but honest Kimpton. A VICTIM.

OUR PRICES CURRENT .- We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS Prices current, issued this morning. THE FIRST NEW CAROLINA RICE. The earliest receipt of new Carolina rice this season took place here yesterday by the arrival of the sloop George Washington, Captain Kelly, from the Grimball plantation, on Pon-Pon River, with four hundred bushels new rough rice, consigned to Messrs George Ingraham & Son. This rice was raised by Andrew Deas, a colored planter, who has an excellent crop, and has succeeded in getting the first to

A FLAGRANT OUTRAGE .- Mrs. McAllen, a respectable lady of this city, and possessed of considerable property, was carried before Trial Justice L. I. Woolf on Tuesday last, charged with a breach of the peace, which, she alleges, was never committed. The justice sentenced her to pay twenty-five dollars and costs, and on her refusal to comply, sent her to jail without allowing time enough for the production of security. Mrs. McAllen remained in jail until after nightfall, when one of her relatives hearing of her disagreeable situation went to the jall and secured her release by paying the fine and costs.

MUSIC ON THE BATTERY .- White Point Garden is a favorite resort with Charlestonians, especially on Saturday evenings, and during the summer there has been a general regret that the charms of music were not added to those of land and sea. This was brought to the attention of Major Stevens, the post commandant, a day or two ago, and that gentleman promptly and courteously gave his instructions to the Post Band to play on the Battery every Saturday, from five to seven o'clock in the alternoon. The first performance will take place to morrow, when the Battery is sure SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- About eleven o'clock yesterday morning, an old negro man, Cæsar Baker, the butler of Mrs. William Adger, while engaged in washing the window glasses in the second story of that lady's residence, in Meeting street, lost his balance and fell to the brick pavement below, severely bruising his forehead and body, and cutting the inner side of the left ankle. The cut has the appearance of one produced by a tractured bone. He was taken up and carried indoors, where he received every attention. Dr. Joseph Yates was immediately sent for, and after an examination pronounced his injuries of a serious though not necessarily fatal nature. Cæsar is a very respectable colored man, and has been in the service of the family for over forty years.
